Fourth Sunday of Easter

My Jesus

As I was preparing to write this newsletter insert, I was reminded of a recent Country Calendar episode which featured a farm in Papanui, near Taihape where they trained young shepherds. It is fair to say the thought of waking up at 3:30am each morning to rustle up nearly 3,500 sheep takes commitment and love.

On this the 4th Sunday of Easter, known as Good Shepherd Sunday, we are presented with the image of Jesus as a Shepherd. In the Old Testament, there are a number of references to God, as a shepherd, the most famous of which is in Psalm 23 of David's famous picture of God as the Good Shepherd.

In today's Gospel, Jesus however takes on the role of the Shepherd with his opening words "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me" Jesus does not refer to "they are my sheep" but rather "my sheep". To me this is really comforting to know that I am under the protection of Jesus but it does not stop there, because Jesus goes on to say that we also have the protection of his Father "no one can take them out of the Father's hand" – double protection, what more can we ask for?

With this protection comes a challenge as well – "they follow me" – When Jesus called his first disciples, the words he used was "Come, follow me". This was an invitation to join him on his mission. The words spoken today, is more of an expectation that we will follow him as our shepherd. So while he will protect us, we also need to do our bit and follow his great example. Jesus was a great example of someone who takes time to pray despite the distractions and demands around him. As we head towards Pentecost Sunday, taking time from our busy days to find a quiet spot to pray and be in the presence of God; a simple act of kindness towards a stranger, or picking up the phone to check how a colleague or family member is doing, now that many people we know are contracting Covid, are some ways of showing our love and the love of God working in us. To me that is following Jesus, my Jesus.

Today is also the World Day of Prayer of Vocations so we pray for all our those who have answered the call to a Vocation or are discerning it. May they be good shepherds to those entrusted to their care and that their flock be supportive to them through prayer and love.

Finally, in the Country Calendar episode I referred to earlier, way before the young shepherds woke up to start their 3:30am shift, someone else was already awake preparing their breakfast and lunch packs. Standing in the kitchen was their "mother" on the farm. So today we also give thanks to all our own mothers on this Mother's Day, those that are still with us and those that have passed on.

OUR MISSION & VISION

To joyfully share God's love. To be a missionary people united in the hearts of Jesus and Mary

Sacred Heart Cathedral Parish is a partner in the Wellington Central Pastoral Area with St. Mary of the Angels (CBD), and the Catholic Parish of Otari (Wilton and Karori)

He is everyone's shepherd. Jesus wants everyone to be able to receive the Father's love and encounter God. And the Church is called to carry on this mission of Christ. Aside from those who participate in our communities, there are many people, the majority, who do so only at particular moments or never. But this does not mean they are not God's children: the Father entrusts everyone to Jesus the Good Shepherd, who gave his life for everyone. - Pope Francis: Angelus for Good Shepherd Sunday, 25 April 2021

HAPPY MOTHERING SUNDAY!

"I think of you, dear mothers: How much you pray for your children, without getting tired. Continue to pray, to entrust your children to God; He has a great heart!"

- Pope Francis
September 18, 2013

VOCATION SUNDAY

Vocation Sunday – 8th of May 2022

Pope Francis says, "Every vocation is born of that gaze of love with which the Lord came to meet us, perhaps even at a time when our boat was being battered by the storm. We will succeed in discovering and embracing our vocation once we open our hearts in gratitude and perceive the passage of God in our lives."

Good Shepherd Sunday is a special day of prayer for vocations to the priesthood. Please pray for Deacon Alfred, our seminarians, Matthew, Kinh, Emilio, and Gerson and for all those discerning the call to priesthood.

Could someone you know become tomorrow's priest?

Pray for this person. Invite him to consider priesthood. Affirm his gifts and qualities.

Encourage him to be open to the possibility of priesthood.

Prayer for Vocations

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, lay pastoral leader life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life.

The Sheep and the Shepherd

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells us about His sheep. Do you know who His sheep are? We are His sheep! He loves us and protects us just like a shepherd cares for his sheep. And what do the sheep do in return? They listen to His voice and follow Him.

We also hear about Jesus being called the "Lamb of God." When He became man, He was like one of the sheep in God's sheepfold. But He was not the same as all the rest of us. He never did any sins Himself, but he died for us on the cross to save us from our sins. That is why at every Mass we say, "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world. Have mercy on us."

Now that Jesus is not visibly here on earth, He has left us another shepherd to care for His flock. Do you know who that is? It's the pope! God gives him grace to guide and protect the Church. Can you say a Hail Mary for Pope Francis today?
